Arrowsight Opens Food and Beverage Division Office in Huntsville, AL, Appoints Mark W. Moshier President

Mt. Kisco, NY (September 7) -- Arrowsight, Inc., the leading developer of remote viewing services and software, has announced the opening of its Food and Beverage Division office in Huntsville, AL, and the appointment of Mark W. Moshier as Division President.

Mr. Moshier will manage sales and operations within the beverage, restaurant, food and meat processing industries for Arrowsight's Remote Video Auditing and Hot Zones biosecurity services. Arrowsight services are available through ADT Security Services under the ADT Select Vision powered by Arrowsight brand.

Arrowsight CEO Adam Aronson said, "We are tremendously excited that Mark Moshier is heading our Food and Beverage Division in Huntsville, AL. Mark's experience and knowledge will help Arrowsight deliver vitally important food defense technologies and video monitoring and auditing services."

Food and Beverage Division President Mark W. Moshier noted, "Reducing the accidental or intentional risk of food tampering in production facilities is our priority," said Moshier. "I look forward to working with industry colleagues to help ensure that American's food supply remains the safest in the world."

Mr. Moshier has 18 years of experience within the Food and Beverage industry, serving in senior level positions at industry leaders such as Tyson Foods, Pepsico and Ralston Purina.

From 2000-2005, Moshier served as Vice President of Operations at Keystone Foods Poultry USA where he managed operations, including plant manufacturing, security, safety, engineering, and government compliance. He was also responsible for large-scale procurement in their fish manufacturing business.

From 1996 to 2000 he served as President and CEO of Technicraft International, a private consulting firm specializing in plant operations, production, design and supply chain optimization.
